message from AWSA President

It is my pleasure to welcome players, officials and spectators to the 1997 Australian Women's Soccer Association National Senior Championships in Newcastle.

We have just enjoyed one of the most exciting years in our sport's short history. The Olympic champions - the US Women's National Team - visited our shores for the first time and won the Ram Cup after three entertaining matches against our national team.

Consecutive record crowds of 3,852 and 4,168 for the last two matches surely surpassed the expectations of all involved in the sport.

The Ansett Australia Summer Series was launched in December and proved to be crucial preparation for our National Team players who have been thrust into a hectic international calendar. The National League also provides a clear development avenue for players, coaches, referees and administrators that we hope will continue long after celebrations in Sydney 2000 are over.

The ITC Programs provide elite training for emerging players and are linked to "feeder" programs to identify talented junior players. These programs work in tandem with our long standing National Championship structure as a pathway for young players to achieve their sporting ambitions.

The cornerstone of our development program is the tremendous support of the Australian Sports Commission structure as a pathway for young players to achieve their sporting ambitions.

I am sure the faith of the Commission will be rewarded as Australia continues to produce world class players in the future. I am equally sure that some of those players are representing this week.

I wish all supporters of our game a tremendous week as we enjoy the showcase of our best soccer talent.

Dennis O'Brien, President

Northern NSW
Soccer Federation

message from the President

On behalf of the Board of Northern New South Wales I would like to welcome all players, officials and spectators to the Hunter Valley for the 1997 Opens Championships.

Newcastle is celebrating its Bicentenary and it is appropriate that the championships are being held in the birthplace of Australian football. Northern New South Wales has a proud history of producing international players, both male and female, and we look forward to seeing our future internationals in action over the next week.

Good luck to all and enjoy your time in Newcastle.

Bill Walker, President

message from AWSA Chief Executive Officer

Participants in the 1997 AWSA National Senior Championship are participating in an era of opportunity that could not have been imagined a decade ago.

As I write this message, our senior national team has just returned from a month long tour of Europe that included seven full internationals against Sweden, Hungary, The Netherlands, Belgium, Estonia, Finland and Norway.

The "Matildas" will soon prepare for a series on home soil against Atlanta Silver Medallists China in November. The second year of the Ansett Australia Summer Series will then lead into the first full time residential program for women's soccer at the Australian Institute of Sport in Canberra.

The AIS Program will launch the build up to the World Cup Qualifiers in October next year and the USA 1999 World Cup and Sydney 2000 Olympics.

It is worth remembering that opportunities now available to players extend well beyond a place in the coveted senior team and include both the chance to compete at Youth International level and in the National League as part of the AWSA Intensive Training Centre Program.

When Australia was beaten 1-0 by the USA in an Under 21 International in May this year, it was apparent that any gap in the quality of emerging players had narrowed dramatically as a result of the rapid development of women's soccer at all levels in Australia.

Just as important as the opportunities being provided to elite players is the development of the game at all participation levels including senior club soccer. It appears that, along with the ever increasing number of women playing the game, the standard of the game at senior level continues to be enhanced.

To the players, coaches and support staff in the 1997 Senior Championship I wish you every success during this week and in the tremendously exciting years ahead. I particularly congratulate those players achieving milestones in the number of years they have attended the Senior Championship. I am sure the sport of women's soccer will continue to provide you with opportunities at every level for enjoyment and friendship.

Lastly, to the organising committee of the Northern NSW Soccer Federation I wish you every success in convening the championship and in promoting and servicing the wonderful growth of women's soccer in the north of NSW.

Warren Fisher, Chief Executive Officer
